Exxaro supply chain disclaimer

Exxaro Resources Limited (Exxaro) allows for use and access of this website by users who wish to introduce their business to Exxaro Supply Chain Management. Details of users received may be available for access by internal supply chain officials on a continuous basis. Should your profile be accessed and found to be compatible with business requirements, you may be approached / contacted in this regard by Exxaro functionaries. However, Exxaro neither guarantees nor warrants this as a promise nor intention to award any form of contract and/or to conduct business, nor an indication that you have been successfully selected and qualified as an approved Exxaro vendor. Furthermore all information provided on the website is provided solely for informational purposes and does not constitute a legal contract between Exxaro and any person, user or entity. The information provided by a user on this website may at anytime be transferred to an external data base managed by a third party without notification and by participating on this site, you hereby relieve and hold Exxaro harmless from any liability or claim which could arise from any action resulting from the use of the information provided. Should you be selected as a vendor through our RFQ / tender process, the relevant vendor registration documents will be sent to you for completion. The user understands that he or she shall have no claim to the effect that information transmitted or stored on this website, is to remain confidential, even if such information is being used for personal communication. Neither Exxaro nor or any of its employees shall be liable for any loss, whether direct, indirect or consequential, arising from information made available on these pages and actions or transactions resulting there from.

The information provided by a user on this website is subject to the removal of this information after 24 months from registration date. An e-mail notification will be sent to the e-mail address provided during the supplier on boarding process, informing the user of the removal and also provide an opportunity for the user to update and register again. Suppliers that have been selected from the website portal and are conducting business with Exxaro will have been allocated a proper vendor number and will not be impacted by the automatic removal process or the business relationship that has been established.

I accept the above conditions.
